

ARISC ARMENIA BRANCH

The ARISC Armenia Branch ensures ARISC a permanent presence in Armenia.

It serves as a hub where visiting scholars to Armenia can meet, seek logistical support, have access to a computer with internet and printing facility. The Branch regularly organizes lectures, workshops, and reading and writing groups, all of which are open to the public.

ARISC ARMENIA BRANCH

Yerevan, 7 Mkhitar Heratsi Street, 3-rd floor.

ARISC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, physical or mental disability, medical condition, ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, or status as a covered veteran.

AMERICAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF THE SOUTH CAUCASUS (ARISC)

The mission of the American Research Institute of the South Caucasus (ARISC) is to encourage and support scholarly study of the South Caucasus states (Armenia, Azerbaijan, and Georgia) in all fields from the earliest times to the present. ARISC aims to provide an ongoing American scholarly presence in each country in order to facilitate research and establish and nurture ties between institutions and individuals.

ARISC promotes and encourages intellectual inquiry across boundaries within the South Caucasus and between the South Caucasus and adjacent areas. The exchange of scholars and scholarly information is encouraged by the support of conferences, fellowship opportunities, publications, teaching resources, and other forms of cooperation for use both in the United States and in the host countries where the Institute is located.
