APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Application Form

Project Statement (no more than 1500 words): Be as specific as possible concerning the purpose, plan of approach, methodology, mentoring, and broad value and significance of the work you expect to do in the South Caucasus and the expected publication or dissemination of the results. Applicants should also append visual material, archival references, etc., as appropriate.

Work Schedule

Budget with narrative: Research awards will be made for a total of between $2,500 and $6,500, supporting up to three months of research to help cover transportation, lodging, meals and incidental expenses, and other expenses needed to support scholar's research in the South Caucasus. Scholars are expected to be in the South Caucasus for the duration of the project.

Curriculum Vitae

Two Letters of Recommendation (Graduate Students Only): If language competence is needed for this project, one of the letters of recommendation must address this. The letter from the advisor should comment on the academic progress of the applicant.
