STATEMENT OF INTEREST

Please provide a brief statement on how the Teaching the South Caucasus workshop will serve your interests and/or coursework (1000-1500 words):

In this section, consider ways in which this teaching workshop with scholarly experts who research and teach about the South Caucasus, South Caucasian regional scholars, and UIUC library specialists, would serve to enrich your coursework and invigorate your teaching.

TOPICS

The general themes of the workshop are sustainability and internationalization. The workshop also includes three subtopics. Please choose one of the below listed subtopic areas that is most relevant to your interests and experience:

- Civic and Political Institutions
- Climate Action
- Culture/Music/Art

NOTE

During the pre-workshop period selected applicants will be asked to produce a draft teaching module in their selected subtopic areas. The goal is for participants to have projects to bring to the workshop, continue working on them individually and in groups, and get feedback from the South Caucasus experts.
