APPLICATION CHECKLIST

* Items marked with an asterisk require a cover sheet to be downloaded from the website.

Application form*

Narrative description of the project: In a separate document, please provide a full description of the proposed project. The project statement should be no more than 1500 words in length, not including bibliographic references. It should address the following specifically:

- A full description of the proposed project, design, and methodology
- The significance of the project, relevance, and potential contribution to regional and /or trans-regional heritage management.
- What are both co-applicants' qualifications for this project and how will they enable you to do your proposed project?

- Please also identify potential obstacles or issues (for example, geopolitical instability, difficulty finding materials, permissions required by local agencies) that may delay your research and how would you meet the challenges of your project should one of these factors be an issue.
- Please note that application reviewers may not be specialists in your field. The language of your statement should be clear and free of jargon.

Supporting documents: Up to 2 pages of illustrative materials such as photos or maps.

Work Schedule

- Scholars are expected to be in the South Caucasus for the duration of the project – ECA funded programs do not support remote projects.
- Please be specific about the number of days per week and number of hours during the day that you will spend on this project, as well as the location for this project.
- Your work schedule should demonstrate that you have checked availability of resources. Archives may not be open year-round, and local scholars may be traveling in the summer. Check on availability ahead of time.
- Be aware that it can take up to six months to obtain the necessary in-country project clearance and plan accordingly. We recommend beginning the process early.
- Applicants with questions about timing and feasibility, or any other issues relating to working in-country, are encouraged to contact ARISC's Resident Directors: Azerbaijan@arisc.org, or Georgia@arisc.org

Itemized budget and budget narrative. (see sample here)

- Allowable costs include airfare, ground transportation, lodging, meals and incidental expenses, and project costs. Funding from this award cannot be used to cover visa expenses or the purchase of insurance. Funds may not be used to pay a PI's salary.
- Budgeted amounts for meals and incidental expenses may not exceed those set by the US Department of State for the location of travel. See this website.
- If the cost of the project exceeds the maximum allowable in this funding opportunity, applicant should explain other sources of funding, as well as how the project can be scaled if they are only awarded ARISC funds.
- Itemized budget may list costs in local currencies, but must also include costs in USD as well as specify the conversion rate.
- Applicants with questions about budgeting for specific in-country costs are encouraged to contact ARISC's Resident Directors: Azerbaijan@arisc.org, or Georgia@arisc.org

Curriculum Vitae for all participants, including associated personnel

- limit to 2 pages each including most relevant experience and publications

Evidence of endorsement from all relevant institutions in Azerbaijan or Georgia, depending on where project will be taking place.
