Application Form*

Project Statement\*

In a separate document, please provide a full description of the proposed project. The project statement should be no more than 1500 words in length, not including bibliographic references, tables, charts, or other supporting information. It should address the following specifically:

- Research question, design, and methodology
- The significance of the project, relevance, and potential contribution to regional and/or trans-regional scholarly research.
- What are your qualifications for this project and how will they enable you to do your proposed project?
- Please also identify potential obstacles or issues (for example, geopolitical instability, archive closures, difficulty finding interlocutors, permissions required by local agencies) that may delay your research and how would you meet the challenges of your project should one of these factors be an issue.
- Statement should clearly indicate whether the application is submitted for Option A (travel in the region), or Option B (remote research), with relevant research design and methodology for that option.

Please note that application reviewers may not be specialists in your field. The language of your statement should be clear and free of jargon.

Work Schedule

- Please be specific about the number of days per week and number of hours during the day that you will spend on this research project, as well as the location for this research project. Be sure to verify that the resources you need access to will be available to you.
- Your work schedule should demonstrate that you have checked availability of resources.
- Archives may not be open year-round, and local scholars may be traveling in the summer. Check on availability ahead of time.
- Be aware that it can take up to six months to obtain the necessary in-country research clearance and plan accordingly. We recommend beginning the process early.
- Work schedule should clearly indicate whether the application is submitted for Option A (travel in the region) or Option B (remote research).
- Applicants with questions about timing and feasibility are encouraged to contact ARISC's Resident Directors: Armenia@arisc.org, Azerbaijan@arisc.org, or Georgia@arisc.org

Itemized budget and budget narrative (see sample here):

- Allowable costs include airfare, ground transportation, lodging, meals and incidental expenses (if traveling), and/or research costs;
- Funds may be requested for travel to training workshops.
- Budgeted amounts for meals and incidental expenses may not exceed those set by the US Department of State for the location of travel. See this website.
- If the cost of the project exceeds the maximum allowable in this funding opportunity, applicant should explain other sources of funding, as well as how the project can be scaled if they are only awarded ARISC funds.
- The budget should clearly indicate whether the project is for Option A (travel in the region) or Option B (remote option).
- Applicants with questions about budgeting for specific in-country costs are encouraged to contact ARISC's Resident Directors: Armenia@arisc.org, Azerbaijan@arisc.org, or Georgia@arisc.org.

Curriculum Vitae

Two Letters of Recommendation must also be submitted directly to ARISC from the recommenders. Applicants should download and share this cover sheet\* with letter writers.

- The applicant is responsible for notifying referees of their request for letters and for ensuring those letters are submitted to ARISC by the deadline;
- All references must be in English. If the reference is in any language other than English, an English translation must be provided;
- One letter must be from the applicant's academic advisor.

By checking off this box I, _____ (applicant's full name), affirm that the statements and application materials are true and accurate representations, to the best of my understanding.
