

AMERICAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF THE SOUTH CAUCASUS
SHORT TERM RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

PROJECT STATEMENT COVER SHEET

Applicants: use the directions below to write your Project Statement.

Your Name: _____

Directions: In a separate document, please provide a full description of the proposed project. It should address the following specifically:

- Research question, design, and methodology
- The significance of the project, relevance, and potential contribution to regional and/or trans-regional scholarly research.
- Does your project relate to climate change or pandemic response?
- What are your qualifications for this project and how will they enable you to do your proposed project?
- Please also identify potential obstacles or issues (for example, geopolitical instability, archive closures, difficulty finding interlocutors, permissions required by local agencies) that may delay your research and how would you meet the challenges of your project should one of these factors present problems.

Please note that application reviewers may not be specialists in your field. The language of your statement should be clear and free of jargon.

Maximum length of Project Statement: The project statement should be no more than 2000 words in length, not including bibliographic references, tables, charts, or other supporting information.

If selected for an award, will your project need Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval? If you are unsure, consult with your home institution.

Yes No Maybe

Notes:

Deadline: Friday, December 9, 2022

For questions, please email info@arisc.org.